Dear Dave,

Thanks for your 9/11 and the enclosed check. I return the check because I intended the book as a gift.

Hope Hildi's father did not suffer much.

On Rose and Fourth Decade, it is my understanding that he refused to carry a review that had been written and sent to him. As of today I have not heard of a single review of Case Open and I know of but a single, excessively-qualified sentence in any paper. That was in the SF Chronicle.

The nuttiness is even worse than you say. George Michael Evica, for the Fourth Decade confab in Providence, RI last year actually solicited a paper on me as a government agent!

And Rose not only defended that, he criticized me because I do not support him.

I do not remember asking him in response what help he offered me. Nor, of course, Nothing but trouble from some of the nuttiness he runs that I am asked about.

I see that COPA has me down s a "presenter" at its next month's confab.

Without asking me and obviously without my agreeing because if I had I'd certainly have spelled my own name correctly.

Except if ypu mention it to Gary, please keep what I now tell/ask you about to yourselves. There is too much internal controversy as it is.

When Gary Shaw sought my help in his and Crenshaw's lawsuit vs AMA et al, I immediately suggested that Kizzia use NEVER AGAIN! and asked the forever stalling publisher-to-be to give him a copy. Kizzia wrote to tell me he'd gotten it and would be in touch. When he wasn't I wondered why. After some time I supposed that I'd probably written something truthful about what his clients wrote and he or they did not like that. So I wrote and told him that if had any questions I'd be glad to answer them. I still have not heard.

Gary also sent me 5-6 deposition transcripts. I took the time to read them and indicate pages on which Kizzia could do some good.

It is not really important to me but it is a strange way to behave when one whose health is as poor as mine and has his own work he wants to do and will never be able to complete takes time to be helpful and even arranges for them to have a copy of the ms. long before the book is to be published and when nobody else does and they pull this ~~sup-osed~~ Trappist bit on me. There is in that book what they can murder all those they are suing with, if they do not lose themselves in the error of which we know and in mythologies. And I asked nothing for it. So if you can learn if what I think is correct, I am curious about this self-defeating bit.

Best to you both, Harold
